

Terms and Conditions | Shattapp

Shattapp is not(and is not intended to be) a replacement for day-to-day social messaging applications (Whatsapp, FB, Telegram). By using this Software, you acknowledge that at any period in time, your messages and conversation history can be deleted without possible recovery.

In the (very unlikely) event of heavy traffic, loading times can be slowed down and user's can experience long waiting times for messages to be delivered and received.

Shattapp does NOT implement the latest security features and updates. By sending confidential messages on this platform, you acknowledge that Shattapp will not be held responsible for data leakage and loss.

Finally, you acknowledge that the developers reserve the right to freely go through user's conversations (as they wish) and reeeeaadddd.
